The Breyer Promise

THE BREYER® “PROMISE” is the commitment we make to you, our fans. With Breyer, you are getting a real horse of your very own. This speaks to our authenticity, quality, realism, and our creative process. Everything comes together to put a real horse in your hands. Every Breyer horse is created by hand, under the watchful eye of the world's leading equine experts.

Breyer model horses, which begin as artist's sculptures, are handcrafted and hand-painted with airbrushes and paintbrushes – a process which is still done by human hands, not machines. Even today, no two Breyer models are ever exactly alike!

The stunning buckskin Lusitano, Cossaco, was a Masters Working Equitation Champion in Canada with his rider, Jill Barron. His courage and beauty was captured as a Breyer model, showcasing his innate athleticism and strength.

Each genuine Breyer model is created with the same passion: countless hours of research, collaboration with owners and riders, and celebrating the spirit of each horse with richly hand-painted coat colors and detailing. For 75 years, Breyer has set the standard for equine-themed toys and collectibles, worthy of imaginative play and collecting!

See some key moments along the journey.
